

LGBTQIA+

ATTEMPT SURVIVOR ACTION GROUP

From a diverse range of people across Australia, meet the LGBTQIA+ Attempt Survivor Action Group. Each member brings their lived experience of suicide to the forefront of conversations to help deepen our understanding of the unique issues members of the LGBTQIA+ communities may face, and how their insights can inform and enhance suicide prevention initiatives.

MEET THE TEAM

Whether your experience with mental health is related to your sexuality or not, it is important to receive well rounded care that isn't harmful, heteronormative or cisnormative.

ANWYN
LOCATION: CANBERRA, ACT
PRONOUNS: SHE/HER/HERS

I... hope to be part of the solution for LGBTQIA+ Australia-wide... by improving awareness of support services and how to gain access to them.

ROB
LOCATION: LAUNCESTON, TAS
PRONOUNS: HE/HIM/HIS

I'm very passionate about the LGBTQIA+ community and helping others to feel comfortable in talking about their own mental health journeys.

MEET THE TEAM

I believe we need a far stronger response and support... to ensure we save lives in our precious and amazing community.

BRIDGET
LOCATION: MELBOURNE, VIC
PRONOUNS: SHE/HER/HERS

The fact that one in two trans young people attempt suicide is absolutely devastating. We need to celebrate trans experiences and bring pride to diverse identities actively.
